American Financial Group Reaffirms Earnings Guidance and Discusses Balance Sheet Strength

CINCINNATI -- October 10, 2008 --American Financial Group, Inc. (NYSE/NASDAQ: AFG) reaffirms its previously issued core earnings guidance for 2008 of $3.90 to $4.10 per share. This guidance reflects better than expected results in our annuity businesses as a result of improved spreads between yields on investments and annuity crediting rates. These results will be partially offset by $23 million in after-tax hurricane losses in the third quarter. The Company expects third quarter core operating results between $0.95-$1.00 per share.

S. Craig Lindner and Carl H. Lindner III, Co-Chief Executive Officers, commented that, "These core operating results reflect the underlying strength of our businesses. In addition, AFG's financial leverage and the capital adequacy of AFG's insurance companies remain in line with the levels required for their current ratings and with the commitments made to the ratings agencies and disclosed to the market."

"Based upon our preliminary analysis, the decline in the values of certain securities will result in a non-core, after tax third quarter charge of approximately $0.80 - $0.90 per share for net realized losses on investments, including other than temporary impairments."

The Lindners added that, "We do not expect any material write-off of deferred acquisition costs ("DAC") in any of our annuity businesses for the year. AFG hedges its indexed annuities with highly matched, over-the-counter options, so its exposure in that line is minimal. Furthermore, since our variable business is relatively small, and since the Company has very few policies with living benefit or similar riders, we expect any DAC write-off in the variable segment to be immaterial. In addition, we continue to see higher earnings in our supplemental insurance business."

Full details of AFG's 3rd quarter results will be released after the close of the market on Monday, October 27, 2008. The earnings release will be available shortly thereafter on AFG's website at www.afginc.com. In conjunction with its earnings release, AFG will hold a conference call to discuss 2008 third quarter results at 11:30 a.m. (EDT) on Tuesday, October 28, 2008. Dial-in instructions will be provided in a subsequent press release.
